

Back in the SCR

To the tune of: Back in the USSR

Lennon-(but mostly) McCartney*

Lyrics: Keith Shine December 2018

Biked in from the Palmer, where I had to teach
That lecture didn't go quite right
All the students seemed to be beyond my reach
But then I did go on all night

We're back in the S-CR
You don't know how thirsty we are, doc
Back in the S-CR

Students never used to be let in the place
Somewhere staff could drink alone
Now we just can't find a seat, it's such a disgrace
We stand and sip our sherries and moan

We're back in the S-CR
You don't know how hungry we are, doc
Back in the SC,
Back in the SC,
Back in the S-CR

Well, the chargrilled chicken really knocks us out
But we leave the veg behind
And the ve-gan sausage makes us sing and shout
And Oklahoma's always on our mi-mi-mi-mi-mimi-mind

(non-)instrumental: "Doo-di doo-di doo-di doo doo doo" to tune of verse

We're back in the S-CR
You don't know how grumpy we are, doc
Back in the S-CR

Well the IT system often locks us out
Our passwords can't be right
Our M-drives go on a walkabout
But David Bell's no longer on our mi-mi-mi-mimi-mi-mind

Well ...

Show us your refurbished library just outside
Yes, we'll bring our Campus Cards
Forty-million pounds, did we hear you right?
At least it's got a gold façade

We're back in the S-CR
You don't know how happy we are, doc
To be back in the S-CR

Final sequence:

Do-do-do doo-di-doo (4 times) or ad lib other stuff!

*For Beatles geeks (i.e. KPS): a 50th anniversary
